

Submitting Incident Reports

AMSC would like to encourage use of this form by students, faculty, and staff, to document and report any incident or concern related to an Atlanta Metropolitan State College student. While this list is not exclusive, listed below are situations that might be reported using this form.

Examples of Incidents or situations that may result in a response from an AMSC office include but are not limited to:

- Acts of Academic Dishonesty
- Violations of the Student Conduct Code
- Harassment of any type
- Classroom disruption
- Violations of local, state or federal law

Examples of observations or behaviors of concern might include:

- Alcohol or Drug abuse
- Suicidal thoughts or ideation
- Drastic changes in behavior
- Sexual Assault
- Any behavior which causes you to be concerned, such as excessive class absences, disturbing writing, poor academic performance.

All reports are forwarded to an appropriate College Official for review and appropriate follow up as needed.
